Excerpt: .and marvellous exhibitions of ground and lofty tumbling. I was a boy then and went to school just on the outskirts of the city, in Broome street. I remember the very spot (on a high hill called To relieve the etymologist of a long and tedious search for these two words, I quote from an announcement, during the previous summer, of the Maidenhead Races at the course in the Bowery Lane. No crossing, jostling, nor any kind of foul Play, will be countenanced; which detected, the Rider will be pronounced distanced. Bunker s Hill, that towered above the few neighboring houses) where I was standing with some ten or a dozen of my schoolfellows, when the tidings were brought by one of our scouting explorers that something was going on down at the Collect. Off they started in a bee line, at full speed...
