Excerpt: . feared that his act had become known. On this account he resolved to flee from the country, lest Pharaoh should kill him. Hence Moses went far away to another land. RESUME The story of Joseph is dramatic and inspiring. The life of Moses, too, is filled with strange and wonderful events. When we think of the checkered career of Moses we cannot doubt the wise and loving Providence which ordains a place in life and a work for each one of us to do. From the time Moses was exposed to drowning in the Nile River until the time he led the people out of Egypt his life is full of remarkable events. God's power saved him from death. Instead of living the degraded life of a slave, Moses is educated in the palace of the king. His growth and development...
