An attempt to regulate them failed at the last legislative session. The subject has now come to a renewed focus through the publication of a bill drafted by the Attorney General, to be submitted to the Legislature for enactment, which, in effect, abolishes all language schools. Reasons for Protest Against Suppressing Schools I approve of the proposition to regulate these schools; but as an American citizen, from an American standpoint, I protest against the enactment of this, or any other bill which directly or indirectly suppresses them. The following are the reasons for this protest: The avowed object of the Attorney General s bill is to crush the schools now being taught in the Japanese language. The object is not stated directly in the bill. It is accomplished by indirect...
