Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Memoirs of Fanny Newell Come near, all ye who fear God, and I will declare unto you what the Lord has done for my soul. It is the love of my great Redeemer, that constrains me to write. All glory be given to the Lord in the highest. Salvation! O the joyful sound, What pleasure to our ears! A sovereign balm for every wound, A cordial for our fears. I was born in Sidney, in the county of Kennebec, State of Maine, May 12th, 1793. At a very early period of my life I was drawn to seek the living God. But alas! I rejected the many calls of this most merciful God, putting off the day of repentance, time after time, and still chose to run with the giddy multitude. But having now obtained a feeling hope, and evangelical trust and confidence in God my Saviour, I for my own satisfaction sit down to write a true history of my past experience. When quite young I can well remember my being awakened times without number; and at so very early a period of my life, that I, like young Samuel of old, did not know that it was the Lord.
